

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, November 14, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Liability limits involving big business, however, stalled

Chamber ad ruling allowed to stand

Lowndes resumes cleanup efforts

Nursing home info going online

LeSueur not sure of next move

Activists promote adoption at rally

Wreck claims game officer

Superintendent tops in the state

'Judge' in ads irks incumbent

No new clients, insurer decides

Bargain-hunting raises stocks; analysts optimistic

Editorials

Iraq: Pressure mounts to meet resolution

Election fallout: Dems poised to reform with Pelosi

Fat kills: Schools should lead fitness effort

The Sun Herald Biloxi

State senator considering run for Mississippi highway post

Homeowners getting squeezed by insurance climate

Federal, state teams assess damage, prepare federal disaster request

Legislature speeding storm repair bill to governor

WorldCom tries to repair image

Negotiations on tort reform not at hopeless stage, conferees say

Teams assessing storm damage for federal disaster aid request

Session may end without a bill

U.S. Chamber learns to avoid the spotlight

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Legislature may OK emergency money for MUW

Lott re-elected Senate Majority Leader

Legislative conferees make no progress

EDITORIAL: State and private sector aid MUW

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Gifts beg question on how session's agenda set

Hattiesburg American

Trucks continue to cross bridge

Greenspan: Fed will aid wobbly economy

High court refuses to hear case

When will tech 'gamble' pay off?

We must reform state elections

Meridian Star

State Farm: No more home insurance

Laurel Leader-Call

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

Minor considering run for Northern District Transportation Commissioner
County-wide warning system hits snag as federal funds dry up

The Clarksdale Press Register

Voters speak clearly in favor of tort reform
Thompson voters' apathy was story in 2nd District

Daily Times Leader West Point

MUW heavily damaged by storm 11/13

Vicksburg Post

State grants $450,000 to repair Adams Street bridge
Arledge remains top spender

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Mississippi quarters quickly become a hit
BRIDGES: Confront the danger before it arrives
PICKERING: A time to right an injustice

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

LeSueur looks to run again

Enterprise Journal McComb

Wyatt Emmerich: Expected governor's race to offer clear choices

The Natchez Democrat

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Study rates nursing homes
Helpers hit streets in Lowndes County
Herring better watch blows at the belt

The Mississippi Press Pascagoula

The Picayune Item

Barbour keynotes Picayune chamber banquet

Starkville Daily News

The Daily Leader Brookhaven

The Daily Sentinel Star Grenada

Ryals: Golf bond delay "miscommunication"

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Bobby Harrison: Barbour can't hang bad budgets on Musgrove 11/13

SCOTUS has Eric Clark angry 11/13

US Supreme Court refuses to hear Mississippi campaign finance case 11/13

DSENTINEL: Mississippi needs special election, not special session 11/13

Brian Perry: How the GOP won 11/14

Madison Journal ED: Mississippians rank at the top of charitable giving in the US 11/14

Stateline.org

National Media

Lott Elected to Be Senate Majority Leader

WorldCom Tries to Repair Image

Pondering the Pull of Pelosi

Sen. Landrieu at Risk in La. Runoff

Mississippi TV Stories

Homeowners Getting Squeezed By Insurance Climate

Mississippi Nursing Homes Rated In Government Study

Conferees At Odds On Large Corporations Protection

WorldCom tries to repair image

Insurance Concerns

Adoption Month

Federal, State Teams Assess Storm Damage

Special Session on Tort Reform Could Be Nearing an End

Mississippi Junior Colleges Fight Funding Problems

Lawmakers Approve $10 Million for M.U.W. Storm Damage

House Passes Bill to Fund MUW Repairs

Leg. Approves Disaster Funds

INITIAL DAMAGE ASSESSMENT DONE

CONTROVERSY CONTINUES IN ALABAMA GOVERNOR'S RACE

SPECIAL SESSION COSTS AT $1.3 MILLION

Other

Terrell camp's efforts to unite GOP faltering

Weekly Papers